> LONDON, Oct. 4 .- A bulletin issued early this morning by Sir Andrew Clark and the other and his weakness was less extreme.

The representative of the Associated Press telephoned to the Hon. Hallam Tennyson, Lord Tennyson's son, stating that the poet's many admirers in America were anxious for a word giving his exact condition, and in reply has received a dispatch from the younger Tennyson thanking the Americans for the interest they display in his father and stating that he had a better day yesterday and that his fever

The democratic committee have been deluging the district with "anti-force bill" literature, and Miklos arrived the assemblage was very large. The Austrian officer was given an enthusiastic welcome by the reception committee and the spectators. His ride had evidently been fast and furious, and both animal and rider seemed to be completely worn out.

Vienna, Oct. 4.—Prince Frederick Leopold, the first German officer to start on the ride Vienna, is making a desperate effort to get to the finishing goal. He had led in the race as far as Iglau in Moravia, but there his horse broke down at 5 o'clock last evening. horse was in a wretched condition. The artimal refuses to touch food, and there is small chance of Prince Leopold winning. Though the Austrian goal is nominally Vienna the actual starting and ending point of the race in Austria is Florisdorf, a village four miles north of Vienna. The first German rider is expected to
